CASE NO. CV-74-S-12-S

UNOPPOSED MOTION TO APPOINT COUNTY ATTORNEY FOR JEFFERSON COUNTY

Comes now the Defendant Jefferson County in the above styled cause and pursuant to the Court's Second Temporary Order requests the Court's permission to fill the position of Jefferson County Attorney. Said position was not contemplated prior to the Court's Second Temporary Order. Pursuant to paragraph 9 of the Court's Second Temporary Order, the Defendant would request permission to fill the position of County Attorney.

On April 25, 2013, the County filed a motion to fill the position of County Attorney with Alabama Supreme Court Justice Mike Bolin. [Doc. 1803]. The Court granted this Motion. [Doc. 1804]. After initially accepting the County's offer of employment, Justice Bolin subsequently declined the position. The County has now completed additional interviews and would like to fill the position with Birmingham attorney Carol Sue Nelson. The Martin Bryant Parties and the United States Department of Justice have no objection.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, the Defendant would request the Court to grant its motion to appoint attorney Carol Sue Nelson to the position of County Attorney.
